

Professor Antonio Andreacchio, MD

Antonio Andreacchio was born in Bari 1st February 1958 and he moved to Milan when he was 10 years old. He completed in Milan his studies and his residency program in orthopedic surgery. He completed his training in Pediatric Orthopaedics as Research Fellow at duPont Institute for Children in Wilmington (USA) in 1997. He attended several prestigious Pediatric Orthopaedics Department during his professional life such as the Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago, Hopital des Enfants in Geneve, Hopital LaPeyronie in Montpellier, Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children in Dallas, Children's Hospital in Philadelphia, Stead Family Children's Hospital in Iowa City. He worked at pediatric orthopaedics department at " Arrigo" Children's Hospital in Alessandria then at "Regina Margherita" Children's Hospital Pediatric Orthopaedics Department in Turin from 2003 till 2019, as chairman since 2007.

Prof . Andreacchio is currently chairman of Pediatric Orthopaedics Department at Children's Hospital "V. Buzzi" in Milan.

He is an active member of European Pediatric Orthopedic Society (EPOS) where he has held countless positions over the years

Prof Andreacchio is EPOS President 2021-2022.

Member of Italian Pediatric Orthopaedic Society (SITOP) where he served as Councillor, Italian Orthopaedic Society (SIOT) Member.

Ponseti International Association Member.

Furthermore is Speciality Editor for Traumatology for Journal of Pediatric Orthopaedics part B. He's Member of the Editorial Board of the Journal Children's Orthopaedics and of Journal of Pediatric Orthopaedics part B .

He serves in more than 10 scientific international impacted Journals as reviewer.

He is authors of numerous publications in peer reviewed journals, books chapters.

He is Author of 3 Books.

His main field of interest are pediatric trauma, clubfoot, infection, cerebral palsy, benign bone tumors.