

Mr James A Fernandes

Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon
Sheffield Children's NHS foundation trust,U.K.
M.S. (Orth), M.ch (Orth), FRCS (Orth)

Mr Fernandes has a wealth of orthopaedic knowledge, having trained in India, Liverpool and Sheffield Children's Hospital Centre of Excellence, as well as the visits to prestigious institutions abroad. His special interests are limb reconstruction, skeletal dysplasias, DDH and general orthopaedics.

Mr Fernandes frequently lectures at national and international meetings. His active involvement in research has led to extensive publication and he has held various important roles in education, such as the Training Programme Director of the South Yorkshire Orthopaedic training program and trains fellows. He has held quite a few notable positions in national societies including Past President of the BLRS, Secretary of BSCOS and Chairman of the World ASAMI-Br and ILLRS in 2020 to name a few.